

SUBIACO

ABBAY AND ACADEMY

ANNUAL REPORT OF STEWARDSHIP

From the Abbot

Abbot Leonard Wangler, O.S.B.
Abbot of Subiaco Abbey

Several times, right before we begin noon prayer or afternoon prayer, when I look out at the empty church, I have the thought that the church is not really empty. It is filled with the many people who have joined us by their participation in our various ministries. In the pews, there are certainly the benefactors who helped with the building of St. Benedict's Church, but there are also those who have helped with various Abbey and Academy renovations or building projects. Present there are those assisting the Coury House, and the alumni and their parents and families, along with current students and families. All of these join the monks of Subiaco who have lived and died performing the works of the Abbey as we gather to pray.

This past year, we have seen the good use of the buildings recently completed and/or renovated for the Academy. The Academy administration continues to explore the possibility of developing top-notch academic programs. The enrollment is hovering just below 200 with the prospect that good retention will push the number of enrollees above 200 for next year. The Coury House continues to serve guests with many weekend retreats, mid-week programs, and hospitality for activities on campus. In December Br. Reginald Udouj and Br. Cassian Elkins were ordained deacons, preliminary to being ordained priests in 2018. Br. Basil Taylor made solemn profession, while Br. John Paul Boyer made simple vows. Fr. Elijah continues to study in Rome while Br. Matthias Hagge is studying at Catholic University.

Our main work is the Opus Dei, the daily public prayer to God in church. In those prayers our friends are included whether or not they have sent us a specific intention in time of need. We are in the process of revising our choir books incorporating a new translation of the psalms and look forward to its completion.

Again, thank you for your continued support, and I assure you of our prayers for you and for your intentions.

Abbot Leonard Wangler, O.S.B.

Platinum Raven

The Platinum Raven recognizes those benefactors whose combined gifts reach $100,000 or more. The donor's name is displayed on the Raven Assembly Memorial.

Golden Raven

The Golden Raven recognizes those benefactors whose combined gifts range from $25,000 to $99,000. The benefactor's name is placed on the Raven Assembly Memorial.

Silver Raven

The Silver Raven recognizes those benefactors whose combined gifts range from $10,000 to $24,999. These member's names are placed on the Raven Assembly Memorial.

Bronze Raven

The Bronze Raven recognizes those benefactors whose combined gifts range from $5,000 and $9,999. Each Bronze Raven member's name is displayed on the Raven Assembly Memorial.

The raven is closely associated with the life of St. Benedict. On one occasion, a jealous clergyman sent him a portion of bread for his meal. Benedict had been warned that it was poisoned. He told the raven to take the bread away and bury it so it would harm no one. The raven did as instructed, then returned and was rewarded.

The ravens that appear in the abbey's coat of arms carved on the Raven Assembly Memorial are also associated with the life and death of St. Meinrad, and they represent the two monasteries of Maria Einsiedeln in Switzerland and St. Meinrad Archabbey in Indiana who cooperated in founding Subiaco Abbey

After the fire of 1927 which destroyed most of the abbey, the community set about rebuilding. It was then that Abbot Edward Burgert decreed that the daily Conventual Mass would always be offered for the benefactors of the abbey. Much physical growth has taken place since this first appeal; each time through the generosity of Subiaco's donors. Daily when the monks celebrate the liturgy, all of these people are still remembered. The embracing of our many friends at the Mass does not end at the altar, but extends throughout the day to the many apostolates the monks perform for the glory of God.

The 2016-2017 Honor Roll of Donors

Membership in the various Guilds or Raven Assembly are determined by the accumulated total of giving from the period from 7-1-92 to 6-30-17.

Those listed in this publication have made a contribution within the period between 7-1-2016 to 6-30-2017, except those donors who are members of the Raven Assembly who appear every year.
